UNIQUE WOMEN'S ALLIANCE TO PRESENT PANEL AT CT WOMEN'S EXPO

Hartford - The Professional Women's Alliance of Connecticut (PWA-CT) is proud to present a panel entitled: "What Women Need To Know: A Special Workshop for Women Going Through Divorce," at the upcoming Connecticut Women's Expo to be held in Hartford, September 12 & 13, 2009. The panel will run from 11:00 am to 12:45 pm on Saturday, September 12.

PWA-CT is a group of independent professionals from Fairfield, Litchfield and New Haven counties committed to supporting individuals before, during and after divorce and other life transitions. Fairfield Attorney Karen Stansbury and Wilton financial planner Elizabeth Cox, CFP™ launched PWA-CT in 2008 in direct response to the rampant fear, confusion, lack of trust and misinformation they were witnessing among many clients going through a divorce. It was clear there was a strong need, among women in particular, for some thoughtful and individualized assistance from dedicated professionals as they navigated their way before, during and after divorce.

"It's crucial for people to receive the correct information as early on in the process as possible, and before the separation agreement is signed," says Stansbury.

As part of their panel at the CT Women's Expo five members of PWA-CT will discuss the experience of divorce from a financial, legal, emotional and professional standpoint, offering their various expertise. Panel participants include Karen Stansbury, Elizabeth Cox, Laura Campbell; Woodbridge Divorce & Life Reinvention Coach, Catherine Avery; New Canaan Financial Advisor and Catherine Richardson; Stamford Realtor. This is an opportunity for participants to hear first-hand from a variety of local experts on the topic of divorce, as well as converse with individual speakers afterwards.

PWA-CT will also be running a booth at the Expo where participants can stop by, ask questions and sign up for mailings.
